

“I spent 33 years and four months in active military service and during that period I spent most of my time as a high class muscle man for Big Business, for Wall Street and the bankers. In short, I was a racketeer, a gangster for capitalism.” (Corp.Fascists)

General Smedley Butler

I wouldn't go to war again as I have done to protect some lousy investment of the bankers. There are only two things we should fight for. One is the defense of our homes and the other is the Bill of Rights. War for any other reason is simply a racket.

THE 'BUSINESS PLOT' of 1933:

In July, 1934 General Butler was approached by 2 wealthy industrialists who offered him $30 million dollars and the support of 500,000 troops and the mainstream media to lead a coup against President Roosevelt and remove him from office. Butler pretended to go along with it, eventually meeting with the main conspirators behind the plot. Their intention was to install a fascist regime like the ones in Nazi Germany and Italy in hopes of profiting from the great depression. After gathering the information, Butler then appeared to testify before a committee of House Representatives. The representatives believed Butler but refused to pursue the people responsible. In it's final report, the McCormack-Dickstein Committee stated, "In the last few weeks of the committee's official life it received evidence showing that certain persons had made an attempt to establish a fascist organization in this country – and might have been placed in execution when and if the financial backers deemed it expedient." The media turned on Butler, calling his allegations a hoax. President Roosevelt eventually cut a deal with the plotters and nothing more came of it. However, General Butler named the names. when he appeared before Congress to tell the story. Some of the names and companies you might recognize:

U.S. Steel, Standard Oil, General Motors, Chase Nat'l Bank, Goodyear Tires, Prescott Bush, The Dupont family, William R. Hearst, Howard Heinz, E.F. Hutton, Andrew W. Mellon, George M. Moffett, J.P. Morgan, Grayson M.P. Murphy, the Pitcairn Family, J. Howard Pew, Hal Roach, Rockefeller Associates, Felix Warburg

HE WARNED US

In the councils of government, we must guard against the acquisition of unwarranted influence, whether sought or unsought, by the military-industrial complex.

The potential for the disastrous rise of misplaced power exists and will persist. We must never let the weight of this combination endanger our liberties or democratic processes.

We should take nothing for granted. Only an alert and knowledgeable citizenry can compel the proper meshing of the huge industrial and military machinery of defense with our peaceful methods and goals, so that security and liberty may prosper together.
